

National Institute of Criminology

2021 work plan

A) Research projects initiated by the Institute

1. The dogmatic issues of the criminal offence of endangering a minor and the related dilemmas of the application of the law

Researchers: Tünde A. Barabás (projectmanager), Bernadett Csapucha

2. The means available in the Hungarian criminal justice system for protecting minor victims

Researchers: Anna Kiss (projectmanager), Bernadett Csapucha

3. The peculiarities of criminal offences related to the cyberspace in Hungary

Researcher: Petronella Deres

4. The tools of criminal law for taking action against the counterfeiting of medicinal products

Researcher: Gabriella Kármán

5. Theoretical and practical issues relating to the new Criminal Procedure Act

Researcher: Anna Kiss

6. The relationship between pedophilia and the sexual offences committed against children

Researchers: György Virág (projectmanager), Judit Szabó

7. Expert evidence in the light of the application of the law

Researchers: Gabriella Kármán (projectmanager), József Kó

8. The effect of natural disasters and epidemics on developments in domestic violence: the criminological characteristics of the changes and the possibilities of preventing and addressing them

Researchers: György Virág (projectmanager), Judit Szabó

9. Transport and nature conservation

Researchers: Ádám Mészáros (projectmanager), Katalin Tilki

10. Doubt and certainty in criminal law

Researcher: Ádám Mészáros

- 11. Increasing Mutual Trust and Transparency Cultural Goods Trade
(in the event of a successful application)
Researchers: Gabriella Kármán (projectmanager), Krisztina Farkas
- 12. The risks of the victimisation of people with disabilities and the elderly in residential institutions and other closed institutions
Researcher: Orsolya Bolyky
- 13. Characteristics of old-age criminality
Researcher: Ildikó Ritter
- 14. An empirical study of robberies
Researcher: László Tibor Nagy
- 15. Longitudinal study of convicts serving actual life imprisonment
Researcher: Ágnes Solt
- 16. The assessment of contact rights as a means of reintegration
Researcher: Ágnes Solt
- 17. The examination of the primary and secondary social effects of the Covid-pandemic, with particular regard to certain forms of crime
Researchers: Szilveszter Póczik (projectmanager), Orsolya Bolyky, Eszter Sárík
- 18. Domestic violence in the light of the case law (enforcement and effect)
Researcher: Renáta Garai
- 19. The examination of the sociological background of homicide committed against one's parent
Researcher: Ágnes Solt
- 20. Abuse of performance-enhancing substances
Researcher: Ildikó Ritter
- 21. Domestic violence and the responses of the system. Child abuse
Researcher: Ágnes Solt
- 22. The systemic examination of the international refugee crisis that started in 2015 and the social reactions to it from the perspective of international law, domestic law and criminology
Researcher: Szilveszter Póczik
- 23. The social perceptions of harassment committed from personal motives
Researcher: Eszter Sárík

24. The criminological and sociological characteristics of child prostitution

Researcher: Szandra Windt

25. Law enforcement models for increasing the effectiveness of action taken against trafficking in human beings

Researcher: Szandra Windt

26. The identification of victims and the exploration of exploitative organisations in order to eradicate the model of forced labour for sexual or work purposes (INVERT) (in the event of the success of an international application)

Researchers: Tünde A. Barabás (projectmanager), Szandra Windt

B) Research projects initiated by the prosecutor's offices
--

B/1. Research commissioned by the Chief Prosecutor's Office

27. Securing assets subject to confiscation or to the forfeiture of assets, and assets that serve as a security of a civil claim and are located abroad

Researcher: Petronella Deres

28. The limits of using the results obtained through covert surveillance in Hungarian judicial practice

Researcher: Krisztina Farkas

29. The limitation of the right of access to documents based on the interpretation of the law by the Court of Justice of the European Union

Researcher: Krisztina Farkas

30. Issues of the protection of animals through criminal law

Researcher: Katalin Tilki

31. The criminological nature of criminal offences committed by professional members of the police in an official capacity

Researcher: József Kó

32. The analysis of the agreements entered into in mediation procedures conducted after 1 July 2018

Researcher: Renáta Garai

33. The criminological and sociological background of criminal offences committed against vulnerable people

Researchers: Tünde A. Barabás (projectmanager), Orsolya Bolyky, Szandra Windt

34. The effectiveness of the representation in criminal proceedings by guardians ad litem of victims without legal capacity in criminal proceedings

Researcher: Anna Kiss

35. Participation in the implementation of the research project entitled Corruption risks? Risks of Corruption? (Hercule application)

(1 January 2021 – 30 April 2022)

Researchers: Klára Kerezsi (projectmanager), Krisztina Farkas, Szandra Windt

B/2. Research commissioned by the Prosecutors' Offices

36. The unlawful use of pyrotechnic products at sporting events

Researcher: László Tibor Nagy

C) Task completed within the framework of cooperation

Research initiated by the State Audit Office of Hungary and the Department of Corruption and Organised Crime of the Prosecutor General's Office:

37. The indicators of criminal acts of corruption. Phase II: Development of indices for cases that reach the prosecution service

Researcher: Klára Kerezsi (projectmanager), József Kó