

National Institute of Criminology

2022 work plan

A) Research projects initiated by the Institute

1. Characteristics of juvenile crime today

Researchers: Eszter Sárík (projectmanager), Orsolya Bolyky

2. The phenomenon of trafficking in human beings in the shadow of the Covid19 pandemic and the attitudes of law practitioners

Researcher: Szandra Windt

3. The domestic and international perception of armed crime, with particular reference to the phenomenon of knife crime

Researcher: Petronella Deres

4. Feeding back lessons from criminal proceedings into the strategy against counterfeit medicines

Researcher: Gabriella Kármán

5. Characteristics of cyberspace-related criminal offences in Hungary

Researcher: Petronella Deres

6. The situation of the reintegration of perpetrators in Hungary since the entry into force of the new Criminal Code

Researcher: Judit Szabó

7. Questions of social and criminal law evaluation of frozen immobility as a possible behavioural response to sexual violence

Researchers: György Virág (projectmanager), Judit Szabó, Zsolt Szomora

8. The impact of education on crime

Researcher: László Korinek

9. Criminology in Hungary: development and opportunities

Researcher: Tünde A. Barabás

10. The criminal law and criminology examination of extortion

Researcher: László Tibor Nagy

11. Trend analysis of criminal offences against life

Researcher: József Kó

12. Characteristics and implications for the criminal justice system of the appointment of forensic experts and the evaluation of their opinions

Researchers: Gabriella Kármán (projectmanager), József Kó

13. Victimisation in the online space

Researcher: Tünde A. Barabás

14. The Hungarian practice of judging the offences of damage to nature (Section 242 of the Criminal Code) based on the evaluation of the implementation of the EU Directive on the protection of the environment through criminal law [SWD(2020) 260 final]

Researcher: Katalin Tilki

15. Domestic characteristics of online drug trafficking

Researcher: Ildikó Ritter

16. Criminal offences against the national tobacco shops

Researcher: Renáta Garai

17. Risks of victimisation of disabled and elderly people in residential care and other closed institutions

Researcher: Orsolya Bolyky

18. Longitudinal study of criminals sentenced to actual life imprisonment

Researcher: Ágnes Solt

19. Some links between the Covid19 pandemic and crime

Researcher: Eszter Sárík

20. Abuse of performance-enhancing drugs

Researcher: Ildikó Ritter

21. Domestic violence and the responses of the system. Child abuse

Researcher: Ágnes Solt

22. The criminological analysis of jihadists and terrorists in Europe

Researcher: Szilveszter Póczik

23. Law enforcement models to increase the effectiveness of the fight against human trafficking

Researcher: Szandra Windt

24. The emergence of solidarity with victims in criminal proceedings and its impact on decision-making

Researcher: Anna Kiss

B) Research projects initiated by the prosecutor's offices

B/1. Research commissioned by the Chief Prosecutor's Office25. Criminal law protection of animals

Researcher: Katalin Tilki

26. Corruption risks? Risks of Corruption? (Hercule III application) research (1 January 2021 – 30 April 2022)

Researchers: Tünde A. Barabás (projectmanager), Szandra Windt, Eszter Sárik

B/2. Research commissioned by the Prosecutors' Offices27. Effective techniques for proving the absence of the occurrence of economic events in the field of budgetary fraud

Researcher: Renáta Garai

28. Exploring the sociological background and the criminological dimension of what is called 'child trafficking' by international and EU standards

Researcher: Szandra Windt

29. The impact of epidemiological rules on the rights of participants in criminal proceedings (The impact of transitional rules facilitating the avoidance of personal appearance and the decision on the basis of documents on the fundamental procedural rights of participants in criminal proceedings)

Researcher: Anna Kiss

30. The regulation and application of juvenile detention in Hungary and other Member States of the European Union (comparative study)

Researcher: Eszter Sárik (projectmanager), Orsolya Bolyky, Anna Neparáczki