

National Institute of Criminology

2025 work plan

Research projects initiated by the Institute

1. A case file analysis study of child pornography cases closed prior to the indictment

Researcher: Judit Szabó

2. Causes of illicit substance misuse among public officials and persons performing public functions

Researcher: Ildikó Ritter

3. Artificial intelligence and crime

Researchers: György Virág, Ágnes Solt

4. Security at sporting events and safety experiences

Researcher: László Tibor Nagy

5. Identifying companies and Victims in the Exploitation phase to disRupt the financial business model of adult and child labour Trafficking (INVERT International Project)

Researchers: Tünde A. Barabás, Szandra Windt

6. Falsification of Medicines – A Guide for Legal Professionals

Researchers: Gabriella Kármán, Ildikó Ritter

7. Relations between Investigating Authorities and the Prosecution Service

Researcher: Anna Kiss

8. Options for implementing the Mendez Principles on Effective Interrogation to implement the UN Convention against Torture (IMPLEMENDEZ – Establishing Networks to Implement the Principles on Effective Interviewing for Investigations – COST Action Project)

Researchers: György Virág, Judit Szabó

9. Trends in victimless crimes – statistical analysis

Researcher: József Kó

10. Legal practice in the field of disorderly conduct

Researcher: László Tibor Nagy

11. Changes in the attitudes of enforcing judges towards the benefits of parole and reintegration custody over the past 10 years

Researcher: Ágnes Solt

12. Missing children – Sociological background of minors under 12 years of age in an unknown place

Researchers: Ágnes Solt, György Virág

13. Characteristics of perpetrators of trafficking in human beings, with a special focus on female perpetrators

Researcher: Szandra Windt

14. Investigation and enforcement practice of violation of legal liabilities relating to keeping dangerous animals and dangerous dogs (Section 359 of the Criminal Code)

Researcher: Katalin Tilki

Research projects initiated by the prosecutor's offices

15. The practice of appointing experts in cases against life and limb

Researchers: Gabriella Kármán, Orsolya Bolyky, Petronella Deres

16. The preparatory procedure as a means of rescuing cases 'lost' in the absence of suspicion

Researcher: Anna Kiss

17. The procedure for prosecuting offences subject to private prosecution, interpretation of notification, denunciation and private prosecution

Researcher: Renáta Garai

18. Typical techniques of committing budget fraud depending on the geographical location of the offence, the specificities of each region of Hungary, the relationship between the methods of committing fraud and the location of the offence

Researcher: József Kó

19. The analysis of prosecutorial motions in terms of the legal detriment in cases of confessions by juvenile defendants [Section 422 (3) of the Code of Criminal Procedure]

Researchers: Eszter Sárík, Renáta Garai

20. The distinction between lobbying and corruption in the law and practice of the EU Member States

Researchers: Eszter Sárík, Orsolya Bolyky, Petronella Deres, Gabriella Kármán, Anna Kiss, Ildikó Ritter, Judit Szabó, Szandra Windt

Task implemented within the framework of cooperation
--

Research commissioned by the Ministry of Agriculture

21. Sanctioning practices of nature conservation authorities or nature conservation management bodies, in particular with regard to fines

Researcher: Katalin Tilki